DISTINGUISHING FEATURES OF THE CLASS:

This is a mid-level position responsible for providing direct support to an administrative unit in a school district. The position requires the performance of various program support activities in addition to more routine clerical work. The incumbent typically has significant interaction with a variety of internal staff or people from outside the unit to provide detailed information and to resolve certain problems. The incumbent is often the expert in the subject area or has responsibility for the day-to-day operation of the service. Work is performed fairly independently under prescribed guidelines, with unusual or precedent changing problems referred to the supervisor. The position may be responsible for supervising the work of a small group of lower-level employees, including performance counseling, appraisals and scheduling for coverage.

TYPICAL WORK ACTIVITIES:

Typical work activities for incumbents in this title include those listed below in addition to those work activities performed by lower-level clerical support titles. They are indicative of the level and types of activities performed by incumbents in this title. They are not meant to be all inclusive and do not preclude a supervisor from assigning activities not listed which could reasonably be expected to be performed by an employee in this title.

1. Specializes in providing services for an internally or externally focused program such as mail collection and distribution management, payroll and benefit time tracking, workers compensation and health insurance, etc.;
2. Maintains databases and program related files and documents; prepares reports on activities;
3. Reviews changes in requirements and regulations and assists in developing appropriate changes in procedures;
4. Acts as a resource for other staff, the public, and clients in the area of program specialization; makes decisions on non-routine questions;
5. Prepares and maintains procedure manuals;
6. Collects, researches and summarizes information from various sources and compiles for action by professional staff;
7. Attends specialized training in area of expertise;
8. May assist in the preparation and maintenance of budget by tracking funds to identify shortfalls, overruns, transferring funds and preparing quarterly reports;
9. May act as a secretary to an administrator or provide clerical support to a unit;
10. May direct the work of a small staff involved in the program.

FULL PERFORMANCE KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS, AND ABILITIES:

Knowledge of the rules and procedures of a specific program or service necessary to act as a resource and independently perform the work activities associated with that program;

Knowledge of rules and procedures for processing paperwork related to all office activities necessary to adapt to changes in regulations and modify existing systems;

Knowledge of office practices necessary for dealing with staff, vendors and the public, filing and retrieving information and compiling and analyzing information;
