DISTINGUISHING FEATURES OF THE CLASS:

This is a management level position in a Group C probation department, serving a jurisdiction, outside NYC, having a population greater than 300,000 and no more than 399,999, or containing fifty or more professional probation officer positions at various levels in a department which serves a jurisdiction with a population of less than 300,000. Where the population of the jurisdiction served is greater than 300,000, the position is jurisdictionally classified as non-competitive as specified by Executive Law §257(6)(a). The incumbent is responsible for planning, organizing, directing, coordinating and controlling the activities of the department in a manner which ensures the provision and maintenance of effective probation services in accordance with established laws and regulations. The work is performed under the general oversight the New York State Division of Criminal Justice Services, Office of Probation and Correctional Alternatives. The incumbent typically reports to the chief executive officer of the county. This position typically differs from that of a Probation Director (Group A, B or D) in that a Probation Director (Group C) is employed in a larger probation department than a Probation Director (Group A or B) and a smaller probation department than a Probation Director (Group D). A Probation Director (Group C) is a Peace Officer pursuant to Criminal Procedure Law Section 2.10 and may carry a firearm in the performance of his/her duties. The incumbent will perform all related duties as required.
